Expertise

Jim is a senior manager within the Financial Administration Services and Compliance team at Matheson.

Jim has extensive experience advising on various aspects of Irish company law, corporate governance best practice and company secretarial obligations to a wide range of financial institutions, such as investment funds, both UCITS and non-UCITS, aircraft leasing companies, insurance companies and structured finance vehicles, carrying on business in Ireland.

Jim regularly co-ordinates, attends and records the minutes at quarterly board meetings of various regulated and non-regulated entities within the financial services sector in Ireland. Jim has responsibility for maintaining the statutory records of a varied portfolio of Irish registered companies, ensuring such companies are compliant with their public filing obligations and for providing such companies with ongoing advice and support in respect of all matters of a company secretarial nature during specific corporate transactions.

Jim is an associate member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators.
